

The District of Columbia State Only Labor Law Poster mandates you fill-in key details.

Sections to complete on the poster are:

Workers' Compensation - Provide your employees with the mandatory information they need in the event they need to file a claim regarding an injury or accident that occurred in the workplace. Provide the name of your insurance carrier, and the ID number.

Parental Leave Act of 1994 - All breastfeeding mothers have the right to be free from any discrimination, harassment, or ridicule. Provide them the contact information they need in the event they have questions/complaints regarding breastfeeding in the workplace.

Non-Discrimination to Government Employees - By law, government employees are protected against discrimination in their workplace. Provide them the information they need should this need to file a claim including: your department, EEO counselor, and telephone number.