

The Maine State Only Labor Law Poster mandates you fill-in key details.

Sections to complete on the poster are:

Whistleblower Protection Act - Employees should be encouraged to report any matters not in compliance with state or federal regulations. Fill-in this portion of your poster with the name of your company representative who responds to any complaints of discrimination, sexual harassment, or whistleblowing.

Discrimination - Employers are required to provide workers with relevant contact information in the event they feel as though they have been discriminated against. Fill-in this form and include your department's go-to representative.

Sexual Harassment Act - Sexual harassment is strictly prohibited in the workplace. Should an event occur, arm your employees with the information they need to file a complaint. Use this form to fill-in your personnel department representative, and relevant contact information.
