FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LaborLawCenter™ looking to award up to $10,000 to local high school

GARDEN GROVE, Calif. (January 2, 2012) – LaborLawCenter™ (www.laborlawcenter.com), a leading provider of labor law posters, Human Resources products, and compliance solutions services announced today the search for a local high school to be the recipient of the “Inspiring Innovation and Ideas” initiative. The selected high school will be awarded $1 for every “like” on Facebook and for every “add” on Google+ that LaborLawCenter receives on their company social media pages.

LaborLawCenter will donate up to $10,000 to the selected high school in the form of cash/check payment, or technology such as Kindle Fire, iPad 2 or laptops.

“LaborLawCenter believes in giving back to the community,” said Mary-Joy Gamueda, Marketing Manager. “We are a socially conscious company and we recognize the importance of doing our part to help the future generations.”

LaborLawCenter believes that socially conscious consumers want to do business with companies that share their values. In addition to supporting local high schools, LaborLawCenter is also committed to an eco-friendly workplace by limiting energy use and resource consumption by recycling office supplies and shipping materials.
