

The Rhode Island Complete Labor Law Poster mandates you fill-in key details.

Sections to complete on the poster are:

Right to Know - You must fill-in the name of the company representative who will respond to employee inquiries and concerns regarding chemical hazards in the workplace.

Sexual Harassment - You must fill-in the name and full contact details of the company representative who will respond to employee Sexual Harassment inquiries and concerns.

Discrimination - You must fill-in the name, title, and full contact details of the company representative who will respond to employee discrimination inquiries and concerns.

Workers' Compensation - You must fill-in the name of your insurance company, your adjusting company, their telephone number, and the policy effective date.