

WHISTLE BLOWERS' PROTECTION ACT

NOTICE: WEST VIRGINIA WHISTLE-BLOWER LAW

The West Virginia Whistle-blower Law protects public employees against discharge, discrimination, or retaliation when they, in good faith, report any instances of

WASTE

Substantial abuse, misuse, destruction, or loss of public funds or resources
designed to protect the public interest

WRONGDOING

Non-technical violations of any statute,
regulation, ordinance, or code of ethics

W. Va. Code § 6C-1-1

To report any instance of waste or wrongdoing, as defined above, contact the appropriate supervisory personnel in your office or agency, or other appropriate official. Published and distributed by the West Virginia Division of Personnel;

Revised November 2003